A Captain's Fortunate Discovery.

Capt. Coleman, schr. Weymouth, dying between Atlantic City and N. Y., had been troubled with a cough so that he was unable to sleep, and was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption.

It not only gave instant relief, but alleviated the extreme sorrows in his breast.
His children were similarly affected and a single dose had the same happy effect.

Dr. King's New Discovery is now the standard remedy in the oleum siccum house and on board ocean steamers. Five ounces a day.

A Fair Proposal.

MY HIDDEN GIRL.

My hidden girl so far exists
All others in the town,
That when I try to think of them,
The thought ends in a frown,
Still, we are very fast,
Very fair no summer moon,
And fresher than Mt. Herman's deer,
Takes sweetest than the honeysuckles.

My hidden girl is fairer, Than all the flowers that over bloom,
And fresher than Mt. Herman's deer,

Takes sweetest than the honeysuckles.

My hidden girl is prettier than The flower, prettier even given—One glance from her, eyes to fair, Were worth all of earth and half of heaven.

Her step is light and graceful as a fawn, Her voice full and gentle on the ear
In sweater tones, than bark at dewy morn,
And shames the music of the spheres.

And when my hidden name I have to call,
This is a symphon to beauty's power;

No other name from my lips may fall, Or thought of other girl—she'll have a hour.

entire stock of winter goods at first cost, to make room for a large spring stock.

To day the election for marshal at Grand Junction will be held for the third time. The two former elections having resulted in a tie vote.

Mr. Joe Flings and Miss Maud Preston were married at the residence of the bride's father on Dec. 19th, 1885. Rev. W. H. Crawford officiating.

Announcements for county officers is now the burden of most of our country exchanges. We have privately heard of a few candidates in Hardeman, but nothing positive as yet.

C. J. Rogers & Co., the enterprising marble firm at Grand Junction is now working the largest force they have ever employed, and all on full time, and they are not up with their orders. They have every facility for doing fine work that any city can claim, and they have the advantage in prices. We know whereof we speak when we say that no firm can surpass them in workmanship or design, and they can compete with any in price.

New Castle.

T. C. Brown and Miss Amanda Robins were married near the late residence of Henry Grigg, on Jan.

19. The house being in Fayette county, the couple had to repair to the grove east of the house to reach Hardeman. O. Harris, J. P., officiating.

The church was handsomely decorated with floral tributes and evergreens.

An elegant dinner was given the bridal party at the hospital residence of Mr. K. E. Hornsby, at which assembled a large number of the friends of both the bridal couple. The Bulletin wishes both parties health, happiness and long lives.

Very respectfully yours,
J. F. MERRY,
Gen. Western Pass. Agt. T. C. R. R.

John Collins' tin work neither "hips nor ripples" and it don't require much money to get it.

A Little Check on Drummers.

"What's new in the boot and shoe business?"

"Prospects good. Fewer failures in the last six months than ever before; but we are introducing a new system with regard to traveling men getting the old lady's consent, approached too near a broken broomstick, and a sore head was the result. Co-operator was heard to mutter something like this, "Dinged hard that I get my head nearly broken, and another fellow gets the girl."

Inter-State Industrial Convention.

Manchester, Jan. 1st, 1886.

To whom it may concern:

The object of this circular is to describe briefly what has been and is being done by the Illinois Central Railroad to encourage emigration from the North to the South. In October, 1885, this Company inaugurated a system of low-rate Southern Land Excursions from points north as far as Sioux City, Ia., with a view of bringing before the public the advantages of the Northeast and other national advantages of the South.

Since that date twenty of these excursions have been run, over three thousand people taking advantage of them, and as a direct result, over three hundred northern families have settled in the States of Kentucky, Tennessee, Mississippi, and Louisiana. It is true that many families scattered in the States of Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Illinois, and Wisconsin.

ption cure will cure you. Ask Savage &
